In the refurbishment of the Wellington Street store after the sale to Meyer in the late 1980s the Board was stored in a Cannington warehouse, having received some damage in it's removal from the store.

In 2004, the Cannington Districts Historical Society, who had been storing the Board for some time, successfully applied to the State Government for a renovation grant.

This work was carried out by Talbot Walsh & Co. of Welshpool and was completed in May, 2005.

The Australian Army History Unit Canberra, Army Museum of Western Australia and the Army Museum of Western Australia gratefully acknowledge the support and partnership of Myer Limited in the placement of the Boan's Honour Board in a position of dignity and public recognition in the Museum entrance.

(The Boan's World War 2 Honour Board is at the Aviation Museum, Bull Creek)

Australian National Memorial, Villers-Bretonneux, France

Villers-Bretonneux is a village about 15 km east of Amiens. The Memorial stands on the high ground ('Hill 104') behind the Villers-Bretonneux Military Cemetery, Fouilloy, which is about 2 km north of Villers-Bretonneux on the east side of the road to Fouilloy.

The Australian National Memorial, Villers-Bretonneux is approached through the Military Cemetery, at the end of which is an open grass lawn which leads into a three-sided court. The two pavilions on the left and right are linked by the north and south walls to the back (east) wall, from which rises the focal point of the Memorial, a 105 foot tall tower, of fine ashlar.

A staircase leads to an observation platform, 64 feet above the ground, from which further staircases lead to an observation room. This room contains a circular stone tablet with bronze pointers indicating the Somme villages whose names have become synonymous with battles of the Great War; other battle fields in France and Belgium in which Australians fought; and far beyond, Gallipoli and Canberra.

On the three walls, which are faced with Portland stone, are the names of 10,885 Australians who were killed in France and who have no known grave. The 'blocking course' above them bears the names of the Australian Battle Honours.
